The Southern Christian Leadership Conference Of Greater Los Angeles (SCLC/LA) provides assistance to victims of hate crimes through its' Hate Crimes Victim Assistance and Advocacy Initiative.

Hate crimes are defined as criminal acts or attempted criminal acts against an individual or group of individuals because of their actual or perceived race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, sexual orientation, gender, or disability.

If you are a victim of a hate crime, it is important that you report it to law enforcement. To report a hate crime, please call 911 or your local law enforcement agency.

For additional support and information, contact the Southern Christian Leadership Conference of Greater Los Angeles (SCLC/LA) at 323-290-4100, or visit our website at www.mlkla.org.

Sponsored in part by the L.A. County Human Relations Commission.

The Hate Crimes Assistance Program seeks to empower community members by:

- Educating them on how to identify hate crimes
- Informing them on the need to report hate crimes
- Providing counseling , conflict resolution, resources and referrals
- Collaborating with local agencies ( police, victim assistance program, community based organizations)

Based on the vision and legacy left to us by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. to be compassionate citizen in a peaceful world house, the Hate Crimes Assistance Program seeks to be a community model that affirms the value of life for all persons.

The Southern Christian Leadership of Greater Los Angeles has experienced and qualified staff who are individually committed to servicing the needs of the community agencies and organizations.

The Hate Crime Assistance Program will sponsor conferences, seminars, workshops and presentations at schools, churches and community agencies and organizations. The creation and dissemination of educational materials will be facilitated through a variety of channels including, but are not limited to mailings, radio and print media, quarterly news letter, web-site, networking and public events.
